José Manuel Ferrero plasma su afición por el cricket en este cómodo sillón de estilo vanguardista. Perfecto para usar individualmente o para conjunto de tresillo con el sofá Cricket. Un diseño de estudiHac para Alexandra con un alto grado de personalización de acabados y tapizados.

Partiendo de la pasión por la cultura inglesa y concretamente su deporte más tradicional, nace la colección de asientos Cricket inspirada en parte del vestuario tan característico que los jugadores de Cricket suelen vestir. En concreto tomamos como punto de análisis y síntesis las famosas almohadillas blancas para proteger las piernas de los golpes. Para ello se ha creado una familia de asientos con la idea de sintetizar las almohadillas como revestimiento de respaldo que combina partes acolchadas con tejido liso. Aportando una visual potente y que da carácter personal al asiento.

José Manuel Ferrero expresses his passion for cricket in this comfortable armchair with an avant-garde style. Perfect to use individually or as a set with the Cricket sofa. A design by estudiHac for Alexandra with a high degree of customisation in terms of finishes and upholstery.

Reminiscent of English culture and their most traditional sport, the Cricket collection was born, inspired partly by the characteristic garments worn by cricket players. In particular, we took as a reference point the famous white padded leg guards that protect the players' legs from blows. Thus, a range of seats was designed with the idea of recreating these padded leg guards as a backrest that combines padded sections with smooth fabric. This gives the seat a powerful visual and personal character. The seat back, a throwback to those unmistakable padded leg guards, offers comfort with its soft cushioning, conferring a unique and individual look to this most singular piece.
